

I would like for the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to stay the way it is. I have been enjoying pleasant evenings at home with less interruptions. I use to get a least 3-6 phone calls a night trying to sell one thing or another, sometimes the calls would come in around 9 o'clock at night. Now I only get one call for the entire month.